

Financial Planning and Analysis (FP&A) Associate

Five Star, a fast-growing manufacturing company with a focus on innovation, customer service, and a winning mindset, is seeking a highly motivated and analytical FP&A Associate to join our finance team. The FP&A Associate will provide financial analysis and planning support to the organization to help drive informed business decisions.

Responsibilities:

- Work closely with the finance team and other departments to develop annual budgets, monthly forecasts, and long-range strategic plans.
- Analyze and report on financial and operational results, providing insights and recommendations to management on key drivers of performance.
- Conduct in-depth analysis of business performance, including pricing, product mix, volume, and cost drivers to identify opportunities to optimize financial results.
- Prepare and present financial models, reports, and presentations to senior management and other stakeholders.
- Assist with financial due diligence for potential acquisitions or partnerships.
- Develop and maintain financial metrics and dashboards to monitor business performance and identify areas for improvement.
- Collaborate with cross-functional teams to support business initiatives, including pricing strategies, capital investment decisions, and product development.
- Assist with other finance projects as needed.

Qualifications:

- Bachelor's degree in Finance, Accounting, Economics, Computer Science, or related field. MBA, CPA, and CFA preferred.
- 3-5 years of experience in FP&A or a related finance function.
- Strong financial modeling and analytical skills with the ability to interpret, communicate, and present complex financial data to both internal and external stakeholders.
- Knowledge of accounting principles and financial statements.
- Ability to work independently and prioritize tasks in a fast-paced, dynamic environment.
- Advanced proficiency in Microsoft Office Suite: Excel, PowerPoint, Access, etc. Experience with financial planning software preferred.
- Comfortable with a manager who is hybrid remote and utilizes Microsoft Teams
- Attention to detail and ability to meet tight deadlines.
